

P R O P O S A L S

FOR A COURSE OF

Anatomical, Physiological, and Chirurgical Lectures,

By J O H N S H E L D O N,

SURGEON TO THE GENERAL MEDICAL ASYLUM, ST. MARY-LE-BONE,

AND MEMBER OF THE COMPANY OF SURGEONS, LONDON;

Which will be given at his Anatomical Theatre, GREAT QUEEN-STREET, LINCOLN'S-INN-FIELDS, London.

IN THIS COURSE IT IS PROPOSED,

FIRST. TO demonstrate the Structure and explain the Functions of the several Parts of the Human Body, by various Dissections, and by a very great Variety of Preparations of the different Parts of the human Body in both the natural and diseased States.

SECONDLY. To apply this Knowledge to the Cure of Diseases, particularly such as require manual Operation; and to perform the various Operations of Surgery on the dead Subject, explaining at the same time the Anatomy of the Parts, and the Diseases which render such Operations necessary. And,

THIRDLY. To demonstrate the various Bandages, and to apply them on a Machine resembling the Human Body.

FOURTHLY. To examine the Structure of the impregnated Uterus and its Contents; in order to facilitate the Study of Midwifery.

FIFTHLY. To compare the Structure of the Human Body with that of Quadrupeds, Birds, Fishes, and Insects.

The Whole to be comprehended in about an Hundred Lectures;—which may be attended on the following Terms:

For the first Course	_____	3 Guineas
the second	_____	3 ditto
the third	_____	2 ditto
the fourth	_____	2 ditto
the fifth	_____	1 ditto.

After which, each Gentleman may attend the Lectures as long as he pleases, without additional Expence; or for Ten Guineas paid at once, each Gentleman may have the same Privilege.

The Arts of Dissecting, Injecting, and making Anatomical Preparations, will be taught on the following Conditions:

For Ten Guineas paid at once, each Student will have a Right to attend the Dissecting Room as long as he pleases, and to be taught the various Arts of injecting and making Anatomical Preparations, paying for the Subjects he uses:

Or for Five Guineas, any one may have that Privilege during Two Courses, or Six Months:

Or for Three Guineas, any Gentleman may have that Privilege during One Course, or Three Months:

But such as chuse only to attend a short Time, may dissect a single Subject for Two Guineas, and may have any Part of it injected at a moderate Expence.

Those Gentlemen who are desirous of merely visiting the Dissections, without operating, may become perpetual Visitors for Five Guineas.

For Twenty Guineas paid at once, each Gentleman will acquire a Right to attend the Lectures and Dissections as long as he pleases; and such, besides being taught the Arts of Dissecting and Injecting, may, at the Beginning of the Summer, have an Opportunity of applying the Bandages upon a Machine, and of copying them if they think proper, and likewise of performing the chirurgical Operations.

And as there are many Gentlemen, who, although they do not belong to the Faculty, yet would wish to attend Anatomical Lectures occasionally, in order to acquire a Knowledge of the animal Oeconomy, such may be admitted every Year to the Lectures, at all Times, for Five Guineas.

Gentlemen who have already studied Anatomy, are settled in London, and do not chuse to go through a Course regularly, but only to attend the Lectures occasionally, may likewise become perpetual Hearers for Five Guineas.

Such Gentlemen as have already subscribed to one or two Courses of the late Mr. Magnus Falconar, Surgeon, (deceased) will be admitted to the Lectures of Mr. Sheldon, upon the same Terms as they would have been admitted to Mr. Falconar's future Courses, had he lived: and such Gentlemen who are already perpetual Pupils to the Lectures and Dissections of the late Mr. Magnus Falconar, may be admitted to those of Mr. Sheldon, upon very moderate Terms.

Mr. Sheldon will give private Instructions to any Gentleman who may not chuse to attend a Public Course of Anatomy.

* * Two Courses will be given during the Winter Season, the one to begin about the 1st. of October, at Two o'Clock, and to be finished about the Middle of January; the Second to begin about the latter End of January, and to finish about the Middle of May.

Notice of the particular Days of commencing the Courses, will be given in the Public News-papers.

N. B. An Apprentice, or House Pupil is wanted, whose Situation will be attended with singular Advantages,
